“ What a tremendous loss for all who knew him, he was a great friend of our family and was with us when we lost our mother and brother. Fidel was looked at as part of our family, he knew all my children and always looked out for them. I loved being around him and my brother herman together they were tremendous, listening to them trying to justify the things they did was classical. My mother had a big heart for fidel and when he would walk by he always came in to our yard to say hello to my mom. When I heard he passed, literally I felt like I had lost another piece of my mother and brother. In the end, Fidel deserves to live in peace, I look forward to the day I see him again along with many other loved ones. See you soon my friend. God Bless his family during this time.

“ I knew Fidel for many many years , we lived together for about 7 yrs aside of every tough time we had , we always came thru and laugh it off , he was a really good and caring person , and beside his mom and sis and extended family , I KNEW HIM VERY VERY WELL. He will be greatly missed , this was so sudden and unexpected that everyone's in shock my heart goes out to the family and I pray that you guys focus on the GOOD memories he left us all with and I ask JESUS to comfort you guys and find some peace in dealing with the loss of a son , brother , uncle ,and grandpa. I love you all so much , but consider the fact that even if we only know him for a day , a year or however long you knew him point is YOU KNEW HIM !!! HE WILL BE SADLY MISSED BUT NEVER FORGOTTEN !!!
