“ I am so saddened to have just found out my sweet sister in Christ Julie passed away, but it does not hurt me as much because she is now in His presence. She loved the Lord, people and her sweet pets, always wanting to please her father in heaven. Regrets to those to those that truly did not see her true value in this life. She was always such a forgiving person. Bad the opportunity to just sit with her in silence at the rehab where she spent many alone time. Yes, my sister nothing can compare to where you are now to eternity no RIP you were already there. even here on earth say hello to my other sisters and bros. In Christ in heaven, as I and my loved ones soon be there!

“ It is sad to see another generation of Flores leave this earth. I am sorry that I did not keep up with Juliana over the years as she was far away from me and older so not to much in common. However she was good to stay in-touch with my older siblings and with my Mother. She is a first cousin and daughter to my father's Sister Trinie Flores Gutierrez. RIP CUZ. Love from the The Flores Clan of Kansas
