“ Momma, know that I am praying for you, your family and the church at this time. I miss Marcos so very, very much. I miss his voice, I miss him saying come on somebody!!! Someone asked me the other day to describe my relationship with Marcos. I describe it this way, it was like two little kids meeting at a park to play in a sandbox together. They took their pail and shovel, they dug holes in the sand and they filled them back up again. They would build sandcastles, and tear down sand walls. They talked about what they would be when they would grew up and they would dreamed of all God had planned for them. At those moments in my life I felt like he and I were in the safest place we could ever be because Momma and God were there watching over us and I love you for that Momma, you approved of me and trusted me and not only with me but with so many others with your little dimple face boy. I vowed to never intentionally try to hurt him and if I ever did I am truly sorry. He surely wasn't perfect and neither was I, but what I knew is that he was my friend and he was given to me by God and you to be my friend for life. And now my friend is gone. His Father called him home and even though I prayed for Father to keep him here I realized my prayer was selfish! It was for me and I promised to never purposely hurt my friend. So My heart released him to go home. My pray now is that God comfort you and those who loved Marcos as I did. My prayer is that we continue to serve the Lord with same passion Marcos served him with and my pray is that one day when I get to heaven there is a sandbox In heaven with a little dimple face boy named Marcos and he is waiting to share his sandbox with me. It will be the safest place for us to be, because Father is there watching over us, no more holes to dig or fill, heaven is our castle, no more walls to tear down and all our dreams have come true! What was Marcos to me? He was simply, my friend....My heart is looking for you Marcos, , but if I look deep Inside my heart, I will still find you there.

“ To momma Alma and family, please accept our sincere condolences for Brother Marcos. We've known him for a long time and loved spending time with him after services and outreaches that we did together. He was truly a man after God's heart. His singing was anointed and it could heal a wounded heart and soul. He was a mighty vessel that the Lord used on this earth. Momma if there's one thing I know about you and your family, you have a lot of faith because you've been through many trials and tribulations, and come out victorious and you and Brother Marcos never gave up. We are praying the peace of God rest upon you and your family. I know Brother Marcos is rejoicing in the presence of the Lord right now. Momma, there will never be another Marcos, but thank you for sharing him with us and for instilling the love of God in him. We love you all and are praying for you. Love Sister Naomi M. Piña (Grace Church) Sinton, TX.

“ Marcos where do I begin. You were truly a child of God. An amazing friend. I will miss your beautiful anointed voice. I will miss your beautiful sense of humor. I will miss your beautiful spirit most of all. Everytime I was around you it was a good time. Everytime you would sing I immediately felt the holy spirit. You were truly anointed. I know now you are singing in the angels choir. You got the best gift of all for your birthday to see our lord Jesus christ. Marcos you will be missed. Love you always. Praying for comfort and strength for your loved ones. Especially mama. Sending a big hug your way mama alma. Fly high angel.

“ Marcos thank you that God put you in my path. I never made a person like you humble and anointed person like you. We cry together we laugh together and we ministry together. We travel together for years. My friend I love you as a son. We had lots of plans together. But God came and took you with him to paradise. There will never be a person like you. You will always be in my heart
