“ She was like a sister I never had, she was always there for me like I was there for her though she had problems at home that I could never understand yet I would always try my best to help her out anytime I could, she would always call my mother "Mom" and my father "Dad" and my parents always welcomed her into our home because she was like family, we always hung out and rode bikes together and play horses because that's what she loved most and of course we would always hang out in my backyard to pet the horses next door cause she was always happy whenever we would, and I will always remember whenever she had taught me how to ride her donkey and I ran into a bush and landed in a pile of pointy sticks and how she, myself and my friend were laughing at what had happened always make me cry to this very day because those were such good memories that now they have only turned into just memories of her, And knowing that she is now in a better place and not being tortured by her family makes me feel much more better, she had told me once that she wanted to ride horses and to be able to have one of her own well now wherever she is at she is riding one right now while looking over everyone she loves and protecting them, I will never EVER forget those times she came to my house crying on my shoulder telling me how bad her family treats her and all I could ever do was try my best to cheer her up while thinking that I wish I could help her be free and never be harmed ever again because she was such a sweet and outgoing person you could ever meet and she would never harm a thing, and I would also never forget the good times we had together she was always happy and laughing whenever we would hangout, she would always call me her sister and I would to, like I said she was like a sister I never had, and if you ever met her in person and was her very close friend you would know what I'm talking about whenever I say her family treats her badly and not so fairly at all, and now she is gone because of them she had been going through so much fear and tears coming to me because she only had me who actually understood and cared for her now that's she's gone all I have are pictures and memories of her, like how she got me a bunny his name was Charles and I loved him so much, And how she helped me get together with this boy I had a big crush on, and she would always come over so we could both help eachother with homework, she would always make me laugh so hard everytime she would do or say something funny, she was like my sun to my moon, my jelly to my peanut butter, light to my dark, star to my sky, I miss her every single day 😞

“ Ady Was Like The Best Cousin I've Ever Had. She Was More Like A Sister To Me. The Times I Used To See Her We Used To Talk And Talk For Hours. We Even Took Walks And Feed The Horses Together. She Was Always So Happy And Cheerful. She Always Had A Bright Smile On Her Face. She Was Like The Best Person I Could Ever Talk You And Just Have Fun With. 💔💔💔 I Really Miss You Ady, You Were Always Laughing And Just Being So Sweet! 💔💔 May You Rest In Peace 🙏💔💔💔 And Bless Your Family 💕💕

“ I use to be ady's for nearly 6 years when I first moved in to Kingsville coming to the university, she was such a ray of sunshine, everyday I would see ady get down off the bus and she'll jump on to the truck taking her home. She was such a beautiful and carefree little soul. She would give the biggest hugs that would make anyone's day better when feeling at their worst. I just can't believe you're gone, I wish I could hug you one more time and tell you, that you're loved dearly. May you Rest In Peace and May god have you in your hands mamas, you don't need to suffer no more... until we meet again my little Ady I love you and I'll miss you soo much!!!

“ I used to be Ady's neighbor, she was the sweetest most helping soul I had ever met, from the day we met she was always ready to romp and play or give a helping hand, she loved animals and was so nurturing to them always wanting to nurse them back to health or feed them, me and her had many talks and adventures together, before I moved we had one last walk and talk and I gave her a big hug , how i will always cherish those moments with her, I also worked with her sister Kayla at McDonald's I believe that was the last time I saw her ❤️ I love you Ady may her amazing spirit live on and we all embrace the memories we have with her, God be with her family through this very difficult time.

“ First and foremost our deepest condolences to Adyana’s family. We wish the family peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your hearts.

We met Adyana a few years ago at our place in Ricardo. My husband and I along with our grandchildren had gone by to check on our horses and she showed up there. We didn’t know her but she talked to us like she knew us very well. She told us how much she loved the horses. Her little face lit up when she talked about them. She told us how she would wait for the school bus in the mornings and while waiting she would feed the horses through the fence. We spent the rest of the day out there and she was there with us as well. She talked to us about her dream of being a Veterinarian because she loved animals. Such a sweet little girl. We saw her only a few times after that but we will never forget the little girl who loved the horses. Rest In Peace Adyana.

*Sincerely,
Carmen and Rick Falcon*
