“ i have never met Bright, however, my daughter Candy Richichi was a very dear friend of his she was instrumental in inspiring Bright to come to the United States to pursue his Masters in Psychology. From all the conversations Candy and Bright had together he was so happy to be here studying. Bright was happy with his friends he made, he loved the church he was involved with stating the people there embraced him with open arms. his dream of coming to the united States came true. My prayers go out to his family, friends, loved ones, may they find peace and comfort at this time. May God Bless You.
