"Do your job" is what Charles would always say to me and my classmates whenever we'd run into him in the pharmacy school. He was always in such a great mood with a big smile regardless of what day it was. He loved seeing the students in the hallways and would always make us laugh, which was much needed, whenever we were stressing about exams. He was truly one of the most amazing people I met during my time in pharmacy school. I will never forget you and your love for Tom Brady and the Patriots. I wish I could have seen you one last time, but I know we will meet again. Love you and miss you a lot, Charles. -Ben
