“ Before Mike 's death when Tina was involved with the Guadalupanas, Altar Guild, vacation bible school she was always there to support and help with all the various projects, we spent a lot of time working on so many volunteer projects. She was the most helpful, most dedicated friend you could ever could want. We ,her friends will always have so many memories of the time we spent working together. Know that she was loved and respected.

“ Mrs. Tina was always positive, cheerful, kindhearted and very giving. I met her through our ladies church group, The Guadalupanas of St. Elizabeth of Hungary Catholic Church. She was always very helpful; cared for the flowers at church, helped at our taco sales and was always ready to help in anyway she possibly could. Mrs. Tina was so sweet to my daughter, Elizabeth, my daughter was three when we met. Mrs. Tina, I will always have beautiful memories of you, thank you for everything and I am thankful and blessed that God allowed our paths to cross. May you Rest In Peace, Mrs. Tina. †
