“ I’m so sorry to just find out that Cory passed away. My name is Rosalinda, he called me “sister” and I called him “brother.” I met Cory at Dr. Schwartz’s office in Harlingen, where I work and where he would visit while working with the pharmaceutical company. We were both going through cancer treatment and would pray for each other. He would tell me that he would add my name to the list of intentions in the evening rosary at church. I too added him to my rosary intentions. I went to Houston to receive radiation and somehow lost touch. His life was short but so meaningful to those of us who’s paths crossed with his, even if it was brief. He had mentioned to me that he loved his kids. He worried about his little girl, who was having a hard time to accept his diagnosis and was glad his son wanted to spend days with him riding with him as he visited doctor offices. I will keep your kids close in prayer my brother. I’m so sorry I didn’t keep in touch. Rest In Peace Cory.

“ I've known Cory for a number of years and must say that I believe he completed his purpose well. God placed him with us for a reason and he did good. He was the image of truth, honor, fairness and love. He did his job perfectly, right to the end. The most important of which was to bring us together, today.....to pray, share a memory, and show support for each other, Each of us has a purpose. Cory's job was to impact the lives of other, our lives. And he did that perfectly. David E. Waguespack, Former co-worker and Friend Forever.
