“ I have always confused Daniel with my son, Angel Rios. They were almost like twins because they looked so much alike! He would always smile when I would mistake him for Angel, and every single time, he would smile and take me to where my son was. Then he would give me a hug! Such a wonderful boy! This "Angel" received his commission too soon for us! Daniel, I hope you see my daughter, Felipa, and "keep a friendly watch over her" as a favor for her big brother and your buddy, Angel, Rios. Now we will wait with great anticipation for the time we can see the both of you again!
