“ Digna was a very good friend from Junior High school thru the day that our father took her home. She has another place that she is needed. Although she loved her family especially her grandchildren, she will always be looking down on them. She had a heart of gold. I will miss her. RIP Digna. Prayers to the family. 🙏🙏

“ Digna was a blessing to me! Every time I saw her she gave such love and welcome to me as someone new to the area and church. Her trust and faith in God encouraged me to keep believing He is faithful. I will miss her more than I can say. From someone who lost her own mother at a similar age, please know that I will be praying for your family during this time of grieving and adjusting to such a dear loss.
