“ You were never forgotten in class you were always in our hearts and minds. Your encouragement and positive attitude was truly missed this semester. You achieved a lot and made a difference not only for yourself but for everyone else to show you were gonna accomplish your goals no matter what it took. We are proud of you and every change you made for the best! You will be missed.

“ Eddie, I remember when Reed was little and he wanted your hat. You graciously put it on him. But the very best memory of you is seeing how happy you and Velma were when we went to eat dinner in December. I saw how much you loved my best friend and she you. I can't believe you're gone. Walk in Heaven happily with our Father, our God!
