“ I came to know Mrs Palacios because her husband was my patient and many years later she became my patient. But she was more than my patient she was a very loving wonderful person. She became my mom. We shared many stories. At times we would laugh until it hurt because she was a jokester. We would also reminisce about the past and cry. But she was always excited about seeing me and I loved every moment I got to spend with her. I will always cherish the wonderful time I always had with her. She is now in heaven with her husband dancing away which it was something she loved to do. Love and miss you ❤️🙏😊❤️
