“ Who would have thought that becoming neighbors over sixty years ago would end up becoming a beautiful lifelong friendship between Elsa, her late sisters Nori, Olga & my late aunt Laura Flores. They were more like sisters than friends. I knew of them through the bi-weekly phone calls between my aunt & late mom (Leonor)...she would always ask " Y las Treviño como estan"? The conversation would go on for a good while. I had the pleasure of meeting Elsa at Karina Reyna's 1st Birthday Party in Laredo. Though I did not see her again until my aunt's funeral many years later, i fekt like I was seeing an old friend. Thank you Elsa, for the love & respect that you & your family extended to my aunt when she first arrived in Kingsville. Que en paz descanse Elsa. Mi mas sentido pesame y abrazos para las familias Loera y Treviño.
