“ Whenever we visited family our trip was never complete without seeing Vangie. We shared many meals and get togethers at Rosa’s. She was always the highlight of our visits. She was always the life of the party. Vangie was always a caring and giving woman. She was always as sweet as ever and gave us such wonderful moments we were able to share with her. She blessed our family with so much. She was always there to help. Her faith was an inspiration to us, never ending. She always found the silver lining in every situation and was able to laugh about it knowing that in the end everything would be all right. I am sure that there are many lives that she has touched and inspired us all to know that nothing is impossible without the Lord, our Father. May she rest in peace, until we meet again in Paradise. Juan and I send our love and prayers to Joe and the children for healing their hearts. Vangie will be missed by many but gave us beautiful moments that we will keep in our hearts forever.
