“ A Mr. Chase who worked at the Falfurrias Creamery was our adult sponsier who taught us many skills by forming a Civil Air Patrol, a Marksmanship club, and was involved in Boy Scouts of America. I still have the .22 caliber Winchester 75 Target Rifle he traded me for my Stevens tubular, bolt-action 22. He was a very dear adult teacher and leader. May God rest her soul and give her peace.

“ Glenda, it was such a pleasure to have known you. We met as Partners working for H-E-B. I will miss you! You were the only Sanitation Partner who would always check up on me. Always asking if I needed anything and if I was good. I still have your retirement party invitation that you personally gave me. A few days later we got the news. There would be no party. You are now resting and rejoicing in Heaven. Look down on me Ms. Glenda. And every time, at my demo I think of you! A big miss!!! Big hugs and lots of love from me 🌈☁️

Ms Glenda it was a pleasure meeting u a long time ago as u and I were partners at Heb. I too completed 40 yrs this year with Heb. U were an awesome hard working partner who always took pride in her job. Made sure everyone was ok or needed anything. U are a true example of The Spirit Of HEB in my book always. It was a great pleasure talking to u when I would come into town and run into u at HEB. Fly high the the Angels. Rest in Peace my Friend.
