“ My deepest condolences to the family, She and her sister were my second grade teachers at St. Martin School. Later, her Son Joey, were in boy scouts together and became Great Friends. I remember going to her relatives house on the corner and playing cards with her and several Aunts. I believe she was related somehow with my uncle Chief Homero Arispe and Chelo it's been years since I've seen Mrs Galvan, but As long as I am alive and I have my memory, she and Joey Will Always have a place in my heart Michael Avelar (Rev. “ My dearest cousins Johnny, Jesse, & Lucy. I am so sorry I will not be able to make it to my Tia Mina’s funeral. I have been under the weather just trying to get back to work. And still doing physical therapy today. I will be with u all spiritually. I know she is resting in a beautiful place called heaven. She earned her entrance to the pearly gates. I will always remember her laugh. She loved and lived life to its fullest. I never saw mad or angry. She always saw the good in every situation or in people. She always reminded me of MamaMaria a good soul. Please look after each other as she taught u family bonds and love one another. This is how our family legacy will live on. It is up to us. Fly high Tia Mina sending u a big kiss say hi to my mom and dad and brother for me. Love u always in my heart❤️🙏. Love u 😊 my cousins.
