“ I feel so bad, he was the best cousin, we did not see each other often but when we did, he was always so happy to see us. He was the only one who always looked for us, whenever we had any event, he always came. I remember when we had the last party for mom, him, Chelo and Lily went and he loved the food, every time I would take him something to eat, he would say very good job, the food is good. Then when the mariachis came to sing for mom, he joined them in singing, we have good memories, I will miss him.

“ This tribute is from Emilio Cadriel. Mino never changed, he was the same person all the time, what you saw was what he was. He was never in bars, never smoked. He was always a very good man. He went to church and served God. I have good memories of him, he use to come visit me all the time when he was in town. Sure am going to miss him

“ My first cousin was a good Christian man. He had a kind heart and greeted you with a smile. I remember him always being there at our family events. Everyone else may have not attended but he did. When my mom was alive but sick, he would come to our house and play his guitar and sing hymns for her which she loved. My sympathy to his family, may God comfort you. At church he would always sing with his wife. There is no doubt in my mind, I know that he is in heaven, he now sings for our Savior. To God be the glory.
