His legacy continues through his six grandchildren, Marisa, Ashley, Jazlyn, Mark, Jalyssa, and Jayla, and four great-grandchildren. Jesus also leaves behind numerous cousins, and a multitude of nieces and nephews he touched through his kindness.

“ You were a staple in our family J. I grew up with you. Then when I grew up and had my daughters , they played with your daughters at your home. Thank you for being so good to them ❤️. Thank you for being so good to me as well. I remember when I used to babysit Judy and little j, you used to check in on us with your portable cb. I also remember going with you to block buster when I was a kid, and you letting me pick out a movie every Friday after work. I remember shaggy, your favorite dog. I remember thinking how amazing it was when he would listen to you. I was like wow, even the dog listens to him 🤔. I remember your fro and the hair pic that always got lost in it 😂. I remember that I used to think I would hear you on the radio whenever I'd hear “snoopy, Snoopy hang on.” I always thought it was you because you were in a band and you'd sing it all over the house. I thought I lived with a rockstar. Actually, I did... you . You will be missed and forever loved by our family J. Peek in on us from time to time, and try to put in a good word for me with Jesus 🙏. RIP uncle, see ya on the other side ❤️.
