“ It's sad we were never contacted that our father died. It wasn't because they didn't have our information. His wife should never have excluded us. We were his first born and she should have put any and all I'll feelings aside and called us. She took our right to be with my dad away. I hold no angry feelings but I do feel sadness that I would have liked to have been included. God Bless her and all of my dad's surviving family. ”
