“ I remember the fun days when we were 7th grade teenagers at Gillett Junior High. My best friend, Delma Salinas Tamez was going steady with Johnny. Frequently we would hang out at Harrell Drug Store where we would visit with Johnny's sister that worked there. One day my sister Lydia Garcia Jasso, Delma, Johnny, and I were there having fountain soda drinks, sitting at one of the booths. My sister decided to pull out her cosmetic bag and was putting lipstick on. Johnny started making fun of her, when suddenly she took the lipstick and brushed it across Johnny's front teeth (missing his lips). That was a LOL moment that none of us ever forgot. Johnny was a great friend. We will never forget him. He is now in God's paradise. Our prayers and many blessings are with all of his family.

Respectfully, Maria Elma Garcia Workman

“ I remember when he got his first car. It was a little Red Volkswagen Beetle. I must have been about 13 yrs old I guess. My big brother was so brave, he actually tried to teach me to drive it . It was standard. I couldn't even get passed the clutch ! Love you brother. You always tried your best to help others.
