“ I am so happy to have spent time with Kenneth when I was visiting his Mom (Catherine) in San Angelo last year. Ken had a generous heart, was kind and gentle, and readily shared his faith with others. He was always the first to offer prayer, his words provided strength and comfort to us all. It is particularly gratifying to know that the love of his life, Melissa, was with him as he passed. What a blessing to meet Jesus as you close your eyes for a nap! Ken was a good son to his Mom, a good Dad, a terrific brother to his siblings and a good husband. I did not get to spend much time with Ken but I know these things to be true as the family often sang his praises. Rest in Peace dear nephew.
