“ My mom was a very loving person always ready to take a drive anywhere. We her children made her days as comfortable as possible spoiled her to the core and always complied with her wishes. The only thing we didn't get to do was go to Kings Inn in Riviera. Most important thing was she was always jolly and full of things to say to make us laugh. We will miss her tremendously. She always had good things to say about everyone. May perpetual light shine upon you mi madre hermosa y mi mejor amiga. There will be no one like you.
