“ Words can never describe the beauty and the love that you brought this family.
A true Álvarez that was in essence the glue that brought families together.
The laughter the tears and the strength. No one will ever fill your space your place.
God wrapped his arms around you and keep you safe in the heavens. Shining down like a beautiful star
Rest my primita.
It's not goodbye it's see you later. . Give my momma a kiss for she's here today December 5th her anniversary to take you home
