“ Our sincere condolences to the Espinoza and Gomez family and all other families included on the passing your dear loved one and our friend Luzita. She will be greatly missed but be assured you will be reunited again in glory! Luzita always took the time to speak to those that visited her and had caring words to share just like the great "pan de polvo" she made! Thank-you for driving by where we and she lived on King Street as a last good bye to us from Luzita. God was good because we were able to see the funeral car procession go by. Nehemiah 8:10 The joy the Lord is your strength ! De parte de Mrs. Didio Trevino y familia ! Dios Los bendiga.
