“ I remember Manuel as a Christian quiet family man, I remember him sitting in the living room on his comfort chair reading the Bible. He was also always working with his hands fixing appliances. I will always remember and admire him for his good character and good qualities. He will be greatly missed, Forever in our hearts ❤️

When we loose a loved one human comfort cannot completely heal the pain, we need God's touch, for comfort and strength to help us through this tragedy and loss, Jesus wraps his arms around us and comforts us, He is our comfort in the midst of the storm.

Love ❤️ You All! The Sanchez Family
