“ Tia, we only meet a few times because I grew up in California. But those few times we meet you and your family were so wonderful to me and my family. I loved the way you made your potato salad and pecan pie. One year driving back to California you gave us a container full of pecan pies. My mother Irma Saldana ate them all before we even got out of Texas. Twins I'm so sorry for your loss. Love the Saldana-Vasquez family from California
