“ My Tia Mary was a beautiful, compassionate, loving, and talented lady. I am sure that She has been greeted with open arms by her Twin and other Sisters with whom she enjoyed a lifelong special bond. Besides her family and friends, She loved nature, animals, and arts & crafts. Among her skills were embroidery, crocheting, sewing, gardening, and like her younger sister Estela, she loved to create slip-cast ceramics. And, She was a a prolific Master cascarron painter. I am thankful for all of the stories she shared with me and my mother about the ol' days. Her memories enriched mine. RIP Tia Mary.
