“ We never know when we will be called to meet the Lord. Martha was prepared to meet Him at any time. Unfortunately, we were not ready for her to go. Our condolences to her family, all who loved her, and those she impacted in her life's path. Countless people will dearly miss Martha's love, friendship, larger than life personality, Christian charity, and guidance inspired by her love of the Lord. Martha was a true prayerful Christian woman whose love for the Lord allowed her to impact so many lives, to teach her family Christian virtues by example, to lift others with her concern and compassion, and to open her table to all not just her family and friends, but those who felt unwanted, rejected, and in need. She impacted her community, seeking no praise for herself, but to praise the Lord. Her grandson Joey is a reflection of her work for the Lord as Joey is filled with love for the Lord. She was an obedient Christian, as are his parents, to bring Joey unto Him. She was proud of him for showing his love for the Lord. Joey led heartfelt prayer before many meals. Martha personified faith in God, love for the multitude, and hope to meet Him and her loved ones in Heaven. Praise the Lord, Martha is fulfilled.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of my dearest school friend Martha. She and I go back when we were in our teen years. We had alot of fun together. She was my maid of honor when I got married in 1959. Her beautiful personality was outstanding joyful, kind, happy and hospitable! She will greatly be missed by all who knew her as I did. Much love to all! Noemi Tamez Vasquez from Salado Tx

“ Martha was very close to my mother Minnie she was the best person I ever knew. When my mom passed away I was devastated but I felt comfort in knowing that Martha was here I felt like my mom was here to now she has gone to join all the angels that are in heaven and I can big smiles on their faces know that they are together again in heaven. I am really going to miss her may God comfort your love ones left behind

“ Martha was my late mother, Carolina Rios best friend. She was an incredible person. Thank you Martha for always being there for my mom. Thank you for being there for me and my family as well. We will never forget you Martha. I know now that you are with Mom and Mrs Herrera and Melba. I am going to miss our phone calls. I'm going to miss your great cooking and all your sweets including your Dr Pepprr cakes. You are a peace now, forever reunited with your husband and son. God bless your life Martha you were a light to us all.
