“ My deepest condolences to all his family. I always called him "Tio Mon" even if he was my father's (Nelse Aguilar) cousin because I had such a love and respect for him. His humor will be sadly missed. Rest in peace, you're home.

Our Deepest Condolences from the Valenzuela Family (Blackie's Kids). We just read and discovered Mon Passed away. We did not all of his family, but it is evident by the wall of all the beautiful kids and grandkids. Dad and Mon were Baseball Rivals on the field, but life long friends of the Faith, Knights of Columbus with teasing other fellow KC's. You will be missed!

“ My dad and I laid telephone cable all around Kingsville. We would call on Mon to locate the gas lines for us because we knew he would tell us exactly where they were. He was always pleasurable and ready with a witty remark. On behalf of the Juarez family, we extend our most deepest condolences. Sonny juarez
