“ Uncle Oscar I have so many great memories I do not know where to start. I never forget how you and auntie took me in, gave me a car, and you would even fill it up for me so I didn't have to worry about it. You were always there for me no matter what. Then you took my daughter in and gave her a roof over her head so she could go to school in Bishop. You were more than an uncle you were our everything. For that we love you and we will miss seeing your beautiful smile but we will see you again. I know you are rejoicing in heaven. My destination
