“ We are very sadden to hear of our cousin Paul's passing, although we are so far away in (California) as young kids we would vacation to Texas and get together with our Uncles, Aunts and cousins at our Grandparents Pedro and Julia Revilla Home. I hadn't seen Paul in years but we occasionally kept in touch through FaceBook. My husband Willy Balangue was fortunate to meet Paul in Texas one year in 1992 when he traveled with my parents Rafael and Blasita (Revilla) Hernandez on a week vacation. He told me he had a blast hangin out with my cousin Paul, he took my husband around the town and he introduced him to some of his friends, he was great to be around a great person. I was but a young teen girl when I last saw Paul and remember him as if it was just yesterday that we were all hanging out at Abuelita's House, listening to my Uncle's playing their music and us kids running around eating watermelon. I will cherish those memories of my cousin Paul. My heart goes out to all the family may God heal your broken hearts.

With sincere Sympathy.
