“ *I remember when I was a kid, it was Fourth of July, Uncle Mundo told us there was no popping fireworkworks in my grandmother's neighborhood. So what did we do? My cousins and I went behind the alley and popped fireworks. When we got back to my grandmother's house, Uncle Mundo scolded us. But he really wasn't mad at us. The next day, I remember that he took me and Bobby to the tortilla factory and bought breakfast food for the whole family.
That's one of my favorite memories of Uncle Mundo.*
