“ When we visit Kingsville after being absent from this place for more than 30 years it was Ruben that welcomed me and my mother and my daughter into his home and I felt we knew each other for 30 years even tho it was my first time meeting him that night. He open his home to me and my family, my mother which is his Aunt Irma Saldana, he had not seen her for more than 30 years but was talking to us like we were only gone for a weekend. The funny part about our trip to kingsville was, I asked Ongie to take us to a best seafood restaurant in town my treat because i was craving some good seafood, he said i know a good place and took me to LONG JOHN SILVER I was laughing so hard that this was the best place he knew, needless to say we drove to Corpus Christi and ate on the pier. We were able to spend time with him and his mother and his entire family. Ruben you will be missed.
