Janie, a devout Christian and dedicated mother, found happiness in studying the bible and attending service at Central Baptist Church. She enjoyed the sound of mariachi music as it reminded her of her youth. Her home was lively with the playful presence of her chihuahuas, who were welcomed companions. Janie's collection of movies offered her an escape, allowing her to unwind and engage with captivating stories.

Above all, her greatest joy came from spending time with her children and grandchildren, sharing laughter and creating cherished memories of outings to the lake, beach, or aquarium. Janie's life was a beautiful blend of love, music, and treasured moments that she held close to her heart. Tears of joy and sadness mixed to make up the very core of what life is all about.

for what you believe in and be men of conviction, whatever it may be. Firm discipline delivered with a loving hand made the men that are proud to call her mom. A debt we can never repay. May you rest at peace till we meet again.
