“ Sylvia, my most heartfelt sympathy for your loss and may the comfort and peace of the Lord be with you . I, too, lost my dear mother in 1996. I still remember the precious memories from when I worked at Alice High. Take care and God bless!

“ She will be missed dearly. Many fond memories of Christmas, fourth of July and tamales. I always looked forward to seeing her. She was always concerned and involved with her family and our welfare. She helped me conquer a lot of self conflict with my life in my late adolescents. She brought me joy and an understanding that only a truly wise woman could convey. She was beautiful and strong. It is not of nature to create a woman as such
