“ I love how you always watched out for my boys like your own grandchildren. Heaven forbid we got after them, all you needed to do was turn and look at us for Jessica and I to know we were in trouble. I find peace in knowing they have one more guardian angel watching over them. You will be dearly missed by so many!

“ Sylvia was one of my sweetest cousins I've known. When I would see her at Walmart we always hugged when we saw each other. She had the sweetest voice and had a big heart. She made the best pasta salads. Her macaroni Pasta was the best. She always went above & beyond and out of her way to make sure everyone was taken care of in one way or another. She will truly be missed. Until we meet again Sylvia, love you! May Sylvia RIP! 🙏❤️🙏

Condolences to family and friends of Mrs. Sylvia such a very soft spoken, kind mother and always willing to help. one of my best parent volunteer helpers when I taught at KISD. her best roles she enjoyed was being a mother and wife her miracle hands helped heal my ex-student Jessica to the point that she has become a present day great young elem. teacher. even in the passing of a loved one GOD can still work miracles. May you experience the LORD'S PEACE, JOY, COMFORT, and Hope!

My memory of your mama...I was very young I remember my mother taking to her house so she can pierce my ears, she might of given me a hair cut, but I only remember getting my ears pierced by her...
